Letter: Addendum - an apology

Addendum

An apology

I know, I know

You're going to hate me

I don't blame you.

I do apologize.

But couldn't help it,

It came to me

Please forgive me

For unconventional thinking

And for stirring emotion

raising ire.

I respect you

You're entitled to your opinion

But medicine is my dominion

I, therefore, dare

to criticize

My fellow docs.

who risk their lives.

I think, perhaps,

We should have left

COVID decisions
To the politicians
For, after all
They're used to changing
Their rules, their Bills
at the drop of a political whim.

For, unlikely as it seems
They might
Through murky waters
Have steered this ship
With the wind
Calmed my emotions
Soothed my ire.

So that
When I had ventured forth
From my home,
from my couch,
I would have liked to see
Faces easy and free
Children playing,
Old folks sunning
We a hugging
Once more a happy family!

PS:
I do highly recommend;

To stay
A happy family,
We use Dr. Jia Hu's
Invention
His most clever
Creation
The Alberta Tracks
Appendage
On your cell phone.

Thanks and have a great day!
