

Alberta Doctors' Digest

Addressing the care deficit

In recent months, the Alberta Medical Association has been talking about the care deficit that has been accumulating in Alberta. Albertans' health and well-being have suffered throughout the pandemic and we know from our own surveying of Alberta patients that we are already experiencing a severe care deficit in the province.

The video below features some thoughts on the care deficit from AMA President, Dr. Vesta Michelle Warren.

Banner image credit: pixabay.com